

REFERENCE

- Orange dot. Intense bands in position and relative intensity
- Volcanoes, fumaroles, solfatarae now active or presumed so within historic or recent geological periods
- Blue. Areas of supposed subterranean now proceeding

SEISMOGRAPHIC MAP OF THE WORLD.
 showing the surface distribution in space
 OF EARTHQUAKES,
 as discussed from the British Association Catalogue
 BY ROBERT WALLIS, F.R.S., WITH MEMOIRS IN 1867.
 EDITOR, JOHN WILLIAM WALLACE,
 Professor of Chemistry, University of Alabama, U.S.
 1867.